We hope to have 20 to 30 participants in the program and encourage all young women ages 14–18 to apply. NOLA Ready wants to offer as much exposure to career options in Emergency Management as possible by incorporating workshops, presentations, and site visits.

- Cassandra Roumo encouraged everyone to Stay connected, make a plan, and gather supplies. NOLA Ready is your partner in emergency preparedness. Text NOLAREADY to 77295 for alerts. Visit <https://ready.nola.gov/resources/>

6:25 pm: Updates from District B Councilmember Lesli Harris Director of Community Engagement Matthew Schoenberger

- District B Councilmember Lesli Harris and Director of Community Engagement Matthew Schoenberger shared Resolution R-25-357, approved by City Council on June 26, 2025, authorizing an election for the Broadmoor Neighborhood on November 15, 2025. Residents will vote on increasing the annual parcel fee from $100 to $175 (up to a maximum of $200 per property). The estimated $306,000/year in funds will support neighborhood improvements and beautification from 2026 to 2030, if passed. This resolution replaces R-25-302, which was withdrawn due to state rules requiring a new vote for any fee increase. Election results will be certified on December 18, 2025.
